SIR,

I have the honor to state that the Sub Division officer of Ranjangud in his yadast No: 65/229 dated 1.10.07 reported that His Holiness the Sri Sringeri jagad Guru offered a sum of Rs 1000/- to Goddess Sri Srikanteswara Swami at Ranjangud during His Holiness' visit to that place in July last (1907) with the desire that the same should be utilized for the preparation of a jade Bangaram for daily ornamentation of the Goddess Parvatamma - navaru and solicited orders in the matter of submitting an estimate therefor. But before orders were passed by me the Sub Division officer in his subsequent yadast No 139/410 dated 27.12.07/1.1.08 recommended, at the instance of Mr. Yegneswara Shastry, Sarvadhi Kari

Kari of the Sri Sringeri Matt, the return of the said amount of Rs 1000/- to the Sarvadhi Kari with a view to have the jade Bangaram prepared by him and offered to the temple.

2. As the preparation of the said ornament entails much trouble and requires great care and attention, I have requested the Sub Division officer to return the Rs 1000/- to Mr. Yegneswara Shastry as requested by him after obtaining a Muchalika from the said person and report to this office after the ornament is prepared and sent to the temple.

3. I therefore request that my action may be approved.
